Dear Colin,

Ever since you left us ten years ago to join Carston Rovers, I've been following your career with great interest and, when you were picked to play for England last month, I was over the moon. I've been going around telling everyone I was your very first coach!

But you've probably guessed I'm not writing just to congratulate you, but to ask for a favour. I'm sure you get emails every day asking you to do all sorts of things: attend events, open supermarkets or just give money. I expect most of them end up in the trash, but I hope that won't happen to this one, because I know how much you enjoyed your schooldays here.

The thing is, it's our annual Sports Day on 15th June and usually the Mayor or the local MP comes and opens it. But, this year, we thought of you. You wouldn't have to stay long or make a long speech – just say a few words. What do you think? I know you don't have a match that day and we would all love to see you.
