Something for Everyone

This new series in 13 episodes starts next Sunday on BBC1. It's a programme for all the family, but particularly for teenagers. In the first episode we meet Jack who is looking for a birthday present for his father. Every day after school, Jack looks in the shop windows in his town but everything is so expensive. Then, the day before his father's birthday, he finds a little shop called "Old and New" with only one thing in the window: a sign that says "Something For Everyone." Through the window, the shop looks dark and dirty inside. Jack doesn't think he's going to find anything in the shop, but a little old man comes out and says he's got exactly the right thing for Jack. Jack goes in and his adventure begins…
