Director, Senior Support, Leventon branch

Senior Support needs you!

Do you ever have free time after school or at weekends? Then why not do something for the senior citizens in Leventon who need help? Our social services can't do everything that's necessary because they don't have enough staff.

What does Senior Support do?

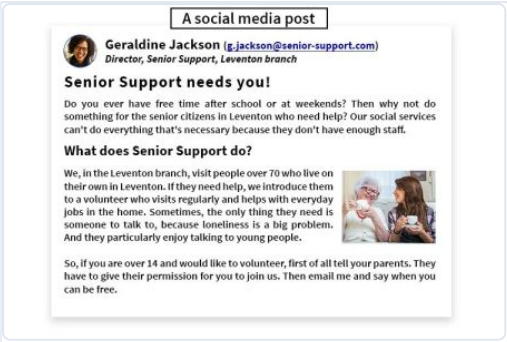

We, in the Leventon branch, visit people over 70 who live on their own in Leventon. If they need help, we introduce them to a volunteer who visits regularly and helps with everyday jobs in the home. Sometimes, the only thing they need is someone to talk to, because loneliness is a big problem. And they particularly enjoy talking to young people.

So, if you are over 14 and would like to volunteer, first of all tell your parents. They have to give their permission for you to join us. Then email me and say when you can be free.

We know that Geraldine Jackson ….. .

- organises holidays for old people
- only helps people in Leventon ✓
- helps anyone who lives alone
- needs senior citizens

An extract from a novel

Inside the palace, everyone watched as General Vaxal walked slowly to where Landis was sitting. With the general was a small man dressed in silver with a silver helmet. It was impossible to see the man's face.

"But where is my brother, the King?" asked Landis. Before Vaxal could speak, the answer was in his eyes, and Landis understood. Tears filled her eyes.

"I'm so sorry," said Vaxal, "but he fought bravely and we won the battle. We... destroyed thousands of them, and took hundreds of prisoners. This is one of them. The others have all left our planet. But they'll be back."

"But where did they come from? Perhaps this man will tell us."

"I don't think so, your Highness."

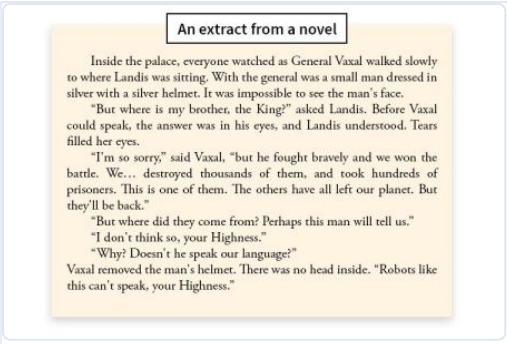

"Why? Doesn't he speak our language?"

Vaxal removed the man's helmet. There was no head inside. "Robots like this can't speak, your Highness."

When the general arrives, Landis is ..... .

- alone in the palace
- with a lot of other people ✓
- standing at the door
- surprised to see the King
