A cool tradition!

If you like folk music and you like to dance, why not join the Barstead Morris Dancers? Anyone can join as long as they are aged 12 or over. You don't need any experience.

Morris dancers

We meet every Saturday to practise, and we perform at local festivals. The highlight of our year is the May Day celebrations (the 1st of May) when we dance in the village square.

Funny hats!

We wear a white uniform and hats with flowers on them! We hold sticks in our hands and there are bells on our knees so we are very noisy when we dance!

Morris dancing is an old folk tradition that dates back to the 15th century, and now it's becoming very popular again, especially with young people, who think it's cool! If you're interested, please contact me, Will Barker (willbarker059@gmail.com).
