About the Oakland Centre

After six months of building work, the club now looks fantastic: the swimming pool is bigger than before, the old tennis court is now a cafeteria, there are two new outdoor tennis courts, and there's some amazing new equipment in the gym. What's more, we want to see more young people in the club, so we are offering special prices for students.

Become a member

If you are a student, you can become a member for only £30 a month. That's half the normal price! It means you can use the gym and the pool when you like at weekends, but only between 4.30 pm and 6.30 pm from Monday to Friday. Swimming lessons cost £10, but keep fit classes are free. You can use the tennis courts for £20 an hour, but you have to reserve in advance.

Come and join us! You'll have a great time!

INSPECTOR: Where were you when you heard the shot, Miss Marsh?

MARY: I was in my room. First of all, I thought it came from outside, so I looked out of the window. But there was no one there. So I came downstairs to the library and found my father... dead. Alice was standing over him with a gun in her hand.

ALICE: I found it on the floor. I didn't kill Philip! I loved him.

MARY: No, you didn't! You married him for his money. Now he's dead, I suppose you'll get all of it.

INSPECTOR: She won't get a penny, madam - not if she killed him and goes to prison.

ALICE: But I didn't! Mary hates me, Inspector, because I took the place of her mother. And she thinks her father was responsible for her mother's death - don't you, Mary?

MARY: My mother died in a car accident. My father was driving.

ALICE: Exactly. You hated him because of that, didn't you?
