As you know, I'm in my second year of film studies and, for the last month, I've been working on a short film based on the life of Emmeline Pankhurst, who campaigned for the right for women to vote in Britain in the early 20th century. We have found actors for all the main roles but, for one scene, we're going to need people to be the audience listening to Emmeline speak in a village hall. We're filming it on 12th May in Bristol. It'll only take a couple of hours, starting at 8am. So, if you're interested, please let me know. It's not paid, of course, but it should be a lot of fun.
