INSPECTOR: Where were you when you heard the gun shot, Mr Marsh?

PAUL: I was in my room. First of all, I thought the noise came from outside, so I looked out of the window. But there was no one there. So I came downstairs to the library and found my father... dead. Alice was standing over him with a gun in her hand.

ALICE: I found it on the floor. I didn't kill Philip! I loved him.

PAUL: No, you didn't! You married him for his money. Now he's dead, I suppose you'll get all of it.

INSPECTOR: She won't get anything – not if she killed him and goes to prison.

ALICE: But I didn't! Paul hates me, Inspector, because I took the place of his mother. And he thinks his father was responsible for his mother's death – don't you, Paul?

PAUL: My mother died in a car accident. My father was driving.

ALICE: Exactly. You hated him because of that, didn't you?
