Local cheese wins prize!

Last Saturday, the fourth annual international cheese festival took place in Westbridge High Street, which was closed to traffic all day. 100 cheesemakers from all over Europe came to show their cheeses and to compete for a prize for the best new cheese. No British cheese has won a prize before, but this year, Thomas Ryland's "blue Devonshire" came second, behind an Italian cheese. Mr Ryland is a local farmer who has lived in Devonshire all his life but only started making cheese five years ago.

What's he going to do with his £500 prize? "It'll pay for a trip to Europe," he said. "I'm going to try and sell my cheese on the continent. My cheese is as good as anything they can produce." Good luck, Mr Ryland!
